Nominations-Democrats to b Taken Where Good Republicans Caunot be Had---Opposition to Remonetization -- Congressional Proceedings.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 15.-Nominatio of Thomas as collector and Cochrane as naval officer at Baltimore have been re ferred to the usual committees where i s said they will be held to make weight for or against the confirmation of the New York nominations for like posi-tions. The nomination of Lawrence for the New Orleans custom house took the same course and will probably remain in the committee until the New York nominations are confirmed or re-

SENATE.—Senator Dawes, of Massa chusetts, presented a remonstrance of forty-five National Banks of the city of Boston, against the passage of the House bill for the remonetization of silver. Petitioners set forth that they are required by law to hold and do possess many millions of dollars worth of bonds of the United States, and the are apprehensive that the passage of the bill will greatly depreciate the value of such bonds and have a bad influence on business throughout the country; it was referred to the Committee on Finance Mr. Sargent, of Colorado, from the Committee on Appropriations reported without an amendment on House bill to provide for certain deficiencies in pay navy and marine corps and for other purposes and it was passed without dis-cussion and now goes to the President for his signature.

Eaton, of Connecticut, introduced a joint resolution proposing an amend-ment to the Constitution of the United States providing for the creation of a tribunal for States for the decision of all contested issues arising in the choice of electors for President and Vice President. Referred to a select committee having that matter in charge.

At the expiration of the morning hour the Senate proceeded with the consideration of the army appropriation

The Housed resumed the repeal of the resumption act. The Committee on Commerce of the Senate resolved to address a communication to the President, asking his reasons for removals in New York and elsewhere. This creates a sensation.

More than sixty years ago the three-decker Spanish man-of-war, the San Pedro Alcantara, set sail as convoy to a number of provision-laden vessels designed for the fleet then engaged in the Carribean sea in subjugating to Spanish rule the States on the Spanish main. Thirteen hundred men accompanied the vessel, and in her treasure chest was $3,000,000 in silver. When the Alcantara reached Venezuela a tierce revolution was in progress, and the citiz Caracas, fearing for their property, trans ferred to the vessel an enormous amount of treasure, of which the gold alone was worth over $1,000,000, while the priests of the various temples and churches also placed on board several heavy chests loaded with gold and silver and defeated the Venezuelans, sacked and burned four revolted towns and took on board the vessel enormous spoils. Excited by success, the soldiers and captured for the brisk village dandy; the rural judge; and burned four revolted towns and took a drunken watch dropped a flaming torch into an open cask of brandy nothing could be done to check the progress of the flames. The first camel's skin ever sold in the Charlot e market, was sold there on Tuesday last, says the Observer. It was taken off the camel that died there belonging to Cole's circus.

Goldsboro Messenger: No appeal has as yet been taken in behalf of either of the two condemned prisoners, Morgan and Durdan, and it is not likely that there will be. Unless Gov. Vanceinterferes, their execution is fixed for the 21st of December.

The trial of T. P. Bowman, of Rock-

Wilmington Star: The Wilmington Light Infantry, at their regular monthly meeting night before last, appointed a committee to request the Adjutant General to designate the organization of the colored troops as First and Second Battalions (colored) North Carolina State Guard, instead of Fourth and Fifth Battalions, as contained in General Orders No. 17. It is thought that the other companies of the Battalion will take similar action.

Statesville Landmark: On the 6th inst. Benetts Mountain, some distance above Taylorsville, Alexander county, was the scene of a bloody shooting affray. Henry Hoke, formerly of Catawba county, and W. W. Stine were the participants. The affray resulted in Stine's shooting Hoke theree times in different parts of the body, with a pistol. At last accounts Hoke was still living, but in a very critical condition. Stine has been ar rested, and is now confined in the Alexander county jail at Taylorsville. Too much brandy was the cause of the difficulty.

Newbern Nutshell: Yesterday morn ing, while the train on the A. & N. C. R. R. was en route for this city from Goldsboro, several bales of cotton on a flat car attached to the train caught fire. it is supposed from sparks issuing from the engine, and for a short while the greatest confusion prevailed on board. However, the train was stopped, all hands turned out and worked manfully and in a short time the fire was extinguished, not having had sufficient time to do any very great damage. Those who were at work were very greatly aided in their work by the presence of a great quantity of water lying in the ditches along the road.

POPULAR EDUCATION IN NORTH CAROLINA.

The reports of the county school boards to the Superintendent of Public Instruction for the State have not all Charlotte Observer: Sunday, near Woodlawn, Gaston county, Louis Stone was playing with an old pistol when it was discharged, the ball lodging in his neck. The wound is a serious and painful one, but the attending physician does not think there is any likelihood of its proving fatal. This victim of misplaced confidence knew that the pistol was loaded, but didn't know that yet been received, but enough have come re unable yet to make any calculation in regard to the proportion between the public school fund and the amount of murder of Elisha Tribit at the work to be accomplished in give of Watauga court, and Judge Cloud the facilities for a common school edusenterced him to be hanged on the 26th cation to all the children in the State, the reports received from the counties at the Auditor's office of the amount at the Auditor's office of the amount, and the officers were in that of taxes laid for schools in the va ous counties not having yet been asgregated; but from the figures glanded at in the separate reports, it may sally be asserted that the amount used for school purposes will fall f short of being sufficient to put in effective operations are the sufficient to put in effective operation a system of common schools equal to the demand We estimate, from the returns al-

eady received at the office of the Superintendent of Public Instruction, that there are in the State, in round numbers, 410,000 children of the age contemplated in the Act of Assembly to attend school, namely, about 270,000 white and 140,000 colored. The number of teachers who have been examined and received certificates to teach in the common schools, is about 2,700-1,850 white and about 850 colored. These are the approximate figures. This would give for each white teacher a school of over 145 children, and to each colored teacher a school of over 165,

Making allowonce for the large number included in the list that have nearly reached the maximum age and who will probably not attend school any more; the numbers, especially among the whites, who attend higher schools, and a great many both white and colored, whose parents consider themselves too poor to spare their children from work to attend school, the number who are likely to attend will be so reduced as to make the proportion between teachers and scholars about reasonable,

But the main difficulty lies in the reat disproportion of the work to be lone to the means for doing it. Every one admits the propriety and necessity of educating the masses. On this subject there is scarcely any controversy Indeed, our own State in common with most of her sister Southern commorwealths, seems to place this as the paramount duty of the government: the first great work to be performed to in sure the future stability of our republian institutions and the permanent happiness and prosperity of the succeeding generations. And to this the master minds of the country give assent. Gov Vance in all his public addresses I resso the importance of placing educational acilities in the reach of all-both white and colored-and he has received the hearty amens of the press and the people throughout the country to his declarations on the subject. These things being admitted, it becomes the duty of the State and of her law-makers to cast about for some plan to meet the wants of the occasion. Ev-

The white and the black members of the machinery is concerned, as it would be to run a good system; and it is very certain, if we make four-pence > we shall generally have fourpence-ha'penny teachers and our children will receive four-pence-ha'penny instruction; in other words, it will continue as it has been in the past that the common schools, so far as contributing to general education is con cerned, will be equivalent to no schools at all.

It is high time we were awaking from our slumbers on this subject, not so much in regard to the necessity of having good schools, free to all, but to the necessity of providing the means for organizing and keeping up such schools in the State.

FRIDAY................NOVEMBER 16, 1877. THE WEEKLY NEWS IS the best weekly paper published in North Carolina. It is only. ONE DOLLAR per year, postage paid, contains 32 olumns of plain printed news from every section of the country, and important advertisements. Always Cash.

[The following poem, by A. J. Munday, a hitherto unknown English poet, is not only sweet, natural and easy in its flow, but it is a marvel in its versification. Observe the ingenious manner in which certain words in the first stanza are made to rhyme with the correspinding words in the second, and so on with the third and fourth, etc.]

I sat with Doris, the shepherd maiden; her crook was laden with wreathen flowers I sat and wooed her through the sunligh wheeling And shadows stealing for hours and hours

And she, my Doris, whose lap incloses
Wild summer roses of rare perfume,
The while I sued her, kept hushed and hark The shades had darkened from gloss to gloom.

She touched my shoulder with fearful finger; She said, "We linger: we must not stay; My flock's in danger, my sheep will wander; Behold them yonder—how far they stray!"

I answered bolder, "Nay, let me hear you, And still be near you and still adore; No wolf nor stranger will touch one yearling; Ah! stay, my darling, one moment more." She whispered, sighing, "There will be sorrow legona to morrow, it I lese to-day; My told unguarded, my flock unfoided, I shall be scolded and sent away."

Said I, replying, "If they do miss you, They ought to kiss you when you get home And well rewarded by friend and neighbor Should be the labor from which you come." "They might remember," she answered meekly.

"That lambsare weakly and sheep are wild.
But if they love me, its none so fervent;
I am a servant, not a child." Then each hot ember glowed quick within me, And love did win me to swift reply; "Ah! do but prove me, and none shall blind

Nor fray nor find you until I die." She blushed and started, and stood awaiting As if debating in dreams divine; But I did brave them—I told her plainly She doubted vainly; she must be mine

So, we twin-hearted, from all the valley Did chase and rally the nibbling ewes, And homeward drove them, we take to together, Thro' blooming heather and gleaming dews

That simple duty from grace did lend her— My Doris tender, my Doris true; That I, her warder, did always bless her, And often press her to take her due.

And now in beauty she fills my dwelling-With love excelling and undefiled; And love doth guard her both fast and fervent— No more a servant, nor yet a child.

NEWS NOTES.

After January 1, the North American Review will be published in New York by D. Appleton & Co. The report that Mukhtar Pasha was vounded in the fighting near Erzeroum Monday last, is contradicted. Ex-Senator Lyman Trumbull, was married in New Haven, Ct., last week, to Miss Mary J. Ingraham, his cousin.

The Marquis of Hartington, the Liberal leader in the British House of Commons, has been elected Lord Rector of Edinburgh University. The life of Pope Pio Nono has been written by 1. Adolphus Trollope, and s published in this country by Craig & Taylor, Detroit, Michigan. A distinguished Indianian says: you will walk along the street and lay

It is announced from Ottawa that there is no foundation for reports that the Canadian Government has granted a reserve of land to Sitting Bull and his band at Red Deer river, or anywhere A giraffe died with cramps at the New York aquarium the other day. Those New Yorkers will never carry on an aquarium successfully until they learn the difference between a fish and a camelopard. New York Herald: Taking all the elections together, it is not apparent that the policy of the President has weakened the Republican party, but it is very apparent that it has given him a decided advantage over his Republican opponents. Some spiteful Illinois Republicans thus telegraphed to the President: 'Rutherford B. Hayes, Washington, D. C.: We have accepted your policy, D. C.: We have accepted your policy, met the enemy, and we are theirs; Logan's old county. Many Republicans.' A New York dipatch gives the details of an arrangement by which Ten Broeck and Parole will contest the champion-ship at the Louisville Jockey Club course next spring. McGrath has the matter in hand in behalf of Mr. Harper, and is justly confident that Ten Broeck will be the winner.

The Associated Press had nothing to say about the election in Detroit. That was because the Democrats elected all their candidates by majorities averaging about 500, in the face of active work by Zach Chandler, who spent several weeks fixing up things for the Bepablicaus .-Kansas City Times, Dem.

Nothing is more certain than that the Mexican question will never be permanently settled by peaceful means. That being conceded, the General of the Army, says the Chicago Times, is clearly mistaken in his opinion that "it is no for the interest of the Government to engage in a war with Mexico at this

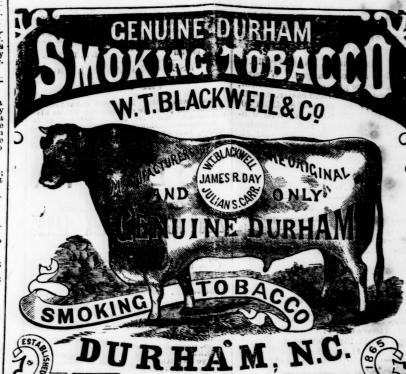

It is said that the reason assigned by the venerable Archbishop Trench, of Dublin, for never permitting stereotype plates to be made of his little books on the English language, is that he may have the opportunity of revising each edition before it goes to press, in order to keep the books abreast of the philology of the day.

Joseph Engeler, alias Carl Strahl, was arrested in St. Louis Friday on suspi-cion of having murdered Mrs. Goetz, wife of Henry Goetz, a farmer living three or four miles from Columbia, Ill., on the previous Sunday night. Later report says that the man confessed killing Henry Goetz also, and was taken to the woods Saturday morning and harged by about one hundred citizens.

A London letter contains the following advice to great Americans visiting and: "An American Major Generai who fought all through our late war and gained a conspicuous record for gulantry and skill, would not rank as Screeant who had never seen a battle and whose services have been limited t barrack duty and strutting down Pall Mall with a small whip in one hand and an inverted collar box on his right ear. The very best thing an American can do who has a title and who proposes visit England, is to lock up his title till his return."

Commutation of Sentence. The Governor, on vesterday, con who was sentenced to be hung at Rock ingham, Richmond county, to-day, toimprisonment for life in the State Peni It will be remembered that in 186.

Carter murdered Bushrod W. Lilly, or Stanly county, and afterwards fled th State, going to Arkansas, where he lived in quiet for ten years. In 1875, upon a requisition of the Governor of this State, he was brought back. At the Fall Term, 1876, of Richmond Superior Court, he was convicted of the crim and sentenced to be hanged. An appea was taken to the Supreme Court, which sustained the judgment of the lower court. At the Spring Term, 1877, of Richmond Court he was re-sentenced t be hung on the 31st of August, 1877. On the 28th of August he was reprieved until October 12th. On the 5th of October he was again reprieved until Nevember 16th, 1877.

A GoodiDays Sport.

Dr. J. W. Alston and Mr. T. R. Ferrall, two of our citizens, went out in the vicinity of Wake Forest on a gunning expedition, and after a days sport reurned home with 62 quail, 2 hares and a 'possum. If the last mentioned animal had been in his "virtuous couch" instead of prowling around during the day contrary to the instinct of his nature, he would not have used off the list of the contrary one to come forward. A Growing Crime.

Among the negroes of our city who are addicted to the habit of engaging in affrays, (and their name is legion,) the razor has been for some time the chosen weapon of offense and defense. The frequency of the use of the expression "cut him with a razor," shows that this little instrument is regarded as effective, and that the advice so given is frequently followed, our police reports will testify. The razor, if used at all, should be in a condition to cut, but some of the belligerents are either too lazy or too careless to put an edge on the weapon.

One example of the use of this mu derous instrument was furnished by the case of Nelson Nichols, before the Geo. L. Phifer. Criminal Court Wednesday. The of-tender, some weeks past, had a desperte affray with another negro in a saloon on Wilmington street, and of course sed the favorite weapon, but owing to its extreme dullness, he was unable to put a period to the existence of his adersary. So he was forced to content simself by attempting to saw through the jugular with the notched edge of the razor, but inflicted the most desper ate wounds he could, considering the rcumstances. Yesterday he was sentenced for this offense to pay a fine of stock in North Carolin & 100, and to be imprisoned for one year & Co., Raleigh, N. C. n the county work house. This example ought to be a warning to all evil doers.

> Disgraceful Conduct. Tuesday night last, a farmer residing near Oberlin village, had a corn shucking on a large scale. Quite a number of young men from e city went out, and we are sorry to arn, that some of them behaved in not only a disorderly but in a most dis-graceful manner, being intoxicated in the last degree. Their conduct towards | turns. some ladies who were present was especially reprehensible.

All the pleasure of the evening was raise money for religious or benevolent broken up. The party ate all the supper prepared, nor earned a single mouthful by working. The real shuck e glad to encourage such prase- ers gave up their task in disgust, leav

We cannot too strongly condemn the conduct of these young men who so behaved. A Flying Four-Footer. A Flying Four-Footer.

Somewhere down in the wilds of Jersey—if Jersey has any will these present Centennial days—one McDaniels dwells, in all the patriarchal comfort and dignity which attach to the English Lord of the Manor. He has a park, a stately mansion, gloves of timber, and above all, the most famous racing stables in America. These royal establishments contain some of the finest and fastest horses i the world. Among them is Harry Bassett, a monarch of the turf, who some time ago met with an accident to one of his slender and priceless limbs. Without wasting a moment in doubtful experiments, Mr.
McDaniels applied some of Giles' Liniment iodide of Ammonia, and in a half a day the horse was as sound as the proverbial silver iodide of Aminonia, and in a half a day the horse was as sound as the proverblal silver dollar. No wonder sleDaniels tells Dr. Glies te send skepties to interview himself and his horse in Jersey. Pescud, Lee & Co., Agents, Raleigh, N. C. NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. Flour! Flour!!
